

Condensation

My teacher brought a can of cold soda into the classroom.
Soon, we noticed little drops of water on the outside of the can.

I think those drops of water are there because _____

Here is a picture of the can:

My teacher told me that the real reason there is water on the outside of the can is because _____

There is _____ in the air all around me!!!